

talk about Job Shop

I had been wandering for a long time but now I have the skills and discipline to go forward more confident in my search. This should be the first place to come for job search skills. The quality of the facilitators and materials is second to none. Martin Jackson, Internal Communication Specialist

Having worked in the training and consulting industry for 14 years, my expectations were far lower than the actual experience - in terms of quality of instruction, process, tools, and outcome. The facilitators exceeded expectation on all accounts. Judy Stipanovic, Fundraiser

The program's unique focus on integrating action and best practices in a group format has increased the efficiency of my time use, while the focus on skill development has ensured the effectiveness of my job search. The program is based on the realities of the current labour market and business decision-making. This reality-based understanding of the process helped me gain excitement and re-commit to an intensive job search process. Lynn Wolverton, CHRP

The resume by itself is worth the course! The discipline of the job search techniques and the positive feedback from the cold calls was very rewarding. I truly feel part of a "select" club with cutting edge job search skills – we really stand out. Tony Francis, VP Sales and Marketing

My resume is fantastic! My cold calls have resulted in 5 interviews. I know I'm good but now I know how to tell you just how good I am! Susan Rathwell, Office Administrator

I've been getting great results with cold calls, awesome tool!! Now, I like my resume and how it looks, the whole idea of networking is great. I would strongly recommend this course to anyone interested in getting a job. Alvaro Perez, Accountant

These 2 weeks of Job Shop in Oakville were hard work but at the same time a great experience. I learned to open my mind to things that I believed would never work for me (like cold calls). I have practiced here and have drastically improved my interview skills, made a more attractive resume and completely changed my mind about cold calls. Natalija Necajev, Architectural Illustrator

When the Regional Marketing Director called to offer me the position, he said from the moment I gave my cold call spiel, he knew he wanted to hire me. Thank you for your tireless training, preparation and optimism that empowered me to take control of my job search, as well as for the extreme makeover of my resume. Grace Saunders, Marketing Director

I learned so much about how to focus myself and how to keep up once I start and not procrastinate. I am also more comfortable with interviewing. Bruce Bloomfield, Mailroom Clerk

If it weren't for the Job Shop course I would still be sitting at a computer all day looking at the open market and getting nowhere. Dennis Cox, Account Manager
